

Helen Miller-Best, “The Gospel Whirlwind”

Nationally-known gospel recording artist and ordained minister, Helen Miller-Best, transports listeners back to the way church “used to be”, with hand-clapping, foot-tapping praise.

Helen is well-known for her award winning, praise-filled gospel sound on her chart-topping song, “I Won’t Let You Fall” from her project, “Time is Winding Up”. Her latest project, “Worth it All”, continues to revive the “old fashioned churching” music style, but with a contemporary flavor. Helen has also headlined various Christian stage plays, such as “The Real Church” and the nationally acclaimed “Potter’s House”, where she held a leading role.

Helen, who was born into a family of gospel singers, was raised in Boynton Beach, Florida. She began singing in church at age of four. Although she is the recipient of several gospel music awards and honors, Helen’s objective is to glorify God through her music and her life. Consequently, her mission has been to touch lives through the anointed singing gift God placed in her. She says that, “the Lord instructed me to ‘record the songs of old that they might be preserved for My people,’ because in these last days, it’s songs like these that people are going to need to hear in order to help them make it through!”

Helen, a devoted mother and grandmother, is enjoying life’s blessings with her husband, Pastor Nathaniel Best, and serves as co-Pastor of El-Bethel Church in Whiteville, NC. Helen was ordained and served as Music Ministry Pastor, the International Music Ministry President and as co-Pastor of Bible Teachers International Ministries’ in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Helen, who has been called “The Gospel Whirlwind”, enjoys sharing her music ministry with audiences through participation in gospel concerts, radio and television appearances and other events that serve the mission of lifting up the name of Jesus. She travels across the US and internationally doing the work of an Evangelist: preaching, teaching and singing the gospel.

Helen is driven by her love for Jesus Christ and her passion for all mankind to know him as Savior and Lord. This passion is obvious as she ministers under the anointing of the Holy Ghost. To God Be the Glory!!!
